John Erwood, 52, Eldorado, is Killed in Hunting Accident

Body is Found Near Cabin At Willa Lake

Well Known Business Man Was Operator Of Steam Bakery

A prominent Eldorado business man shot himself accidentally in a hunting incident early yesterday.

Dead is John Erwood, 52, operator of the Eldorado Steam bakery. His body was found by a fence about 300 feet from his cabin at Willa Lake southeast of Eldorado.

Coroner Gibbons said that he received a call to go to the lake at 9 a. m. yesterday and reported that he found the following facts:

Erwood went to his cabin every afternoon about 4 p. m. to spend the night and last Friday bought a single-barrel 12-gauge shotgun, telling friends at the time that he was going to use it for hunting squirrels.

He went to the cabin late Saturday and was in the company of his brother-in-law, Alfred Bramlet, and Charles Patterson, who also has a cabin at Willa Lake.

Follow Dog to Body
A gunshot was heard by Bramlet and by Frank Leberman, in a nearby cabin, around daybreak, but they thought nothing of it, believing the report to have come from a hunter shooting at a squirrel.

Later in the morning Bramlet and Patterson missed Erwood and started looking for him. Finally Erwood's dog came barking from the direction of a woods and the two followed the dog back, finding Erwood's body against the fence 300 feet from the cabin. The shotgun blast had made a large wound in the top of his head.

Coroner Gibbons and Sheriff Paul Spangler were called to the scene. Erwood was still clutching the shotgun, from which was taken an empty shell, and there was a freshly-broken fence post beside him.

Death Instant
"Undoubtedly Erwood had started to climb the fence to go into the woods and grabbed the fence post as he was climbing over," Gibbons declared. "The fence post broke and as he fell, the gun trigger was tripped and the shot was fired. Death was instant."

Erwood's wife, Mildred, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Trigg of Eldorado, was spending the night at their home, 2108 Illinois avenue in Eldorado.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Ann, of St. Louis, and a sister, Lucille Bramlet, of Eldorado. His father, the late J. H. Erwood, operated the bakery at Eldorado for many years, most of the time being associated with Carl Jones in its operation. The son took over the bakery following the death of his father 15 or 16 years ago.

Funeral Tuesday
The body lies in state at the Martin funeral home and the funeral will be held at 4 p. m. Tuesday at the Calvary Baptist church in Eldorado, the church pastor, the Rev. Robert Winston Tabb, conducting the funeral service.

Burial will be in Sunset Lawn cemetery in Harrisburg. The casket will not be opened following the service at the church.

Coroner Gibbons announced that an inquest into his death will be held at seven o'clock tonight at the Martin funeral home.

Junior Police to Help Handle Traffic At Plowing Matches

The Harrisburg Junior Police have been invited to assist in handling traffic at the National Plowing matches to be held at Olney Sept. 16, 17 and 18. Eddie Wise, national chief, has been informed in a letter from Jesse Shipley, sheriff of Richland county.

The invitation to Wise was issued after Sheriff Shipley had contacted Lester Delzell, chairman of traffic and safety; Stanley Shinkos, city commissioner of public health and safety; Harry Eagleton, chairman of the Richland county Board of Supervisors, and Sgt. Clarence Robinson of the Illinois State Police, who agreed to invite 35 Harrisburg Junior Police in handling traffic problems at Olney during the plowing matches at which more than 100,000 people are expected to attend.

Abney Appointed State Director Of Aeronautics

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Joseph K. McLaughlin has resigned after five years as state aeronautics director.

Gov. William G. Stratton Sunday announced that the 41-year-old Sullivan lawyer is quitting the post effective Sept. 1 and will be replaced by Arthur E. Abney, 35, Springfield.

Stratton said McLaughlin, who had held the position since 1949, was resigning to resume his private law practice.

Abney, a native of Harco in southern Illinois, has been assistant director of the Aeronautics Department since 1950. He worked for the Civil Aeronautics Administration a year and joined the state in 1948.

Stratton said the job of assistant director will not be filled until a decision is made on a proposal to ask the 1955 Legislature to abolish the Aeronautics Department or merge it with another agency.

Two Injured When Auto Hits Tree; Charges are Filed

A man and a woman are in the Lightner hospital suffering injuries when their car hit a tree near Carrier Mills early today and charges were filed against both of them.

They are Beulah Gossett Pinnell, 38, Shawneetown, and Loren Hancock, 38, Stonefort, both in Lightner hospital. The woman suffered chest injuries and facial cuts, Hancock a bad cut over the right eye and cuts around the mouth.

Sheriff Paul Spangler said the car, driven by the woman, was going fast on a gravel road a mile south of Carrier Mills near the Tuller farm and that it hit a tree when she lost control.

Charges of driving while under the influence of liquor were filed in county court against the woman. Hancock was charged with intoxication in a complaint filed before Justice of the Peace Vern Joyner.

Another charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicants was on file today, naming Ralph Evitts, now in Stonefort after the defendant. Evitts was arrested Thursday night in Stonefort by county officers.

Strengthen World Fellowship, Anglican Bishop Tells Assembly

CHICAGO (AP)—The churches of Christ must strengthen their "round the world fellowship" as a means of easing the strain between East and West, the Rt. Rev. G. K. A. Bell, bishop of Chichester, England, said today.

Bishop Bell, an Anglican, presented the report of the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches at the WCC's Second Assembly, the Northwestern University campus in suburban Evanston.

The Assembly opened Sunday with a gigantic "festival of faith" at Soldier Field in Chicago.

In another address today, Dr. W. A. Visser 't Hooft, the council's general secretary, said the World Council is hopeful that other churches and denominations worshipping in the name of Jesus Christ will see fit to join the organization.

Bishop Bell noted in his report that "there has been an increasing strain in the relations of nations in East and West, inevitably affecting the position of the churches" since the council held its first assembly in Amsterdam in 1948.

Must Strengthen Ties
Because of this increased strain, he said, the churches must strengthen their international ties. There is greater need than ever, he said, for them to expand "their witness to Christ."

In the meetings of the World Council, all our ideologies can be subjected to the judgment of Christ," he said.

In meetings of the WCC Central Committee, the bishop said, there has been a "steady growth of mutual trust and deep understanding" by representatives from all parts of the globe.

"There has been no thought," he said, "of one bloc linking up against another bloc," but always the sense of being the instrument of the World Council of Churches... and of a common desire to know the mind of Christ and to follow its leading to the best of our ability in all our relationships."

Hopes for Complete Participation
Dr. Visser 't Hooft said he hoped other Christian churches now not connected with the council will "come to see that our one and only purpose is to be servants of the kingdom of God and of Christ's church on earth."

He said, regarding clergymen of Communist countries, who were denied the freedom to come here by their governments, that "we are at one in our conviction that all churches should have full freedom to participate in ecumenical assemblies through their officially appointed delegates."

"We deplore, therefore, that certain churches do not enjoy that freedom," he said.

Dr. Visser 't Hooft expressed disappointment at a Roman Catholic directive barring representatives of the church of Rome from attending sessions as observers as they had previously. The pastoral letter, which was issued by Samuel Cardinal Stritch of Chicago, showed "serious lack of understanding of our true purpose," he said.

161 Faiths Represented
The huge "festival of faith" under the stars Sunday night was a solemn and dramatic opening to the worldwide meeting based on the simple theme "Christ—the hope of the world."

About 1,500 delegates representing 161 Protestant and orthodox faiths from 48 nations have gathered for the 17-day meeting in suburban Evanston. Their purpose is to unite the many denominations on the basis of the faiths they hold in common.

The delegates, including some of the world's most distinguished churchmen, today began the detailed work of framing and considering the resolutions that will be the fruit of the conference.

The current meeting is the second, and largest, to be held by the World Council. It is called "ecumenical," or, according to the dictionary, "world-wide in its inclusiveness."

Elizabethtown Man Is Electrocuted

Loren Matthews, 27, resident of the Elizabethtown area, was electrocuted Saturday while preparing to move into an unoccupied house. He was the son of Mrs. Ollie Matthews, Elizabethtown.

The funeral was today at 2 p. m. at Peters Creek Baptist church. Rev. Raymond Rose officiated, and burial was in the church cemetery.

Judge Reynolds to Set Court Docket

The docket for the September term of Saline county circuit court will be set by Judge C. Ross Reynolds of Vienna on Friday, August 27, Circuit Clerk Quentin Bowers announced today. The term will begin on Sept. 13.

Studebaker, Packard Stockholders to Vote On Merger Proposal Tuesday

NEW YORK (AP)—Stockholders of Studebaker Corp. and Packard Motor Car Co. decide Tuesday whether to merge forces for a counter attack aimed at recapturing markets lost in the auto industry's fierce competitive war.

They will vote at special meetings on a proposal to merge the two pioneer auto firms into Studebaker-Packard Corp., fourth ranking auto maker with assets of more than 250 millions dollars.

Such a merger would reduce the number of auto firms to six, wiping out the last of the so-called "independents."

Since the birth of the auto industry in this country, more than 1,700 companies have been formed to make the "horseless carriage." But only a handful have survived the competitive struggle over the years. The rest have vanished in mergers, acquisitions and bankruptcies.

Officials of both Studebaker and Packard have strongly recommended the merger and it appears almost certain it will be approved. James J. Nance, Packard president, and Harold S. Vance, president of Studebaker, both predict the merged company will be in a stronger position for the struggle ahead than either Studebaker or Packard alone.

House-Senate Conferees Okay Farm Measure

Reject Efforts To Increase Dairy Price Supports

WASHINGTON (AP)—House-Senate conferees today rejected efforts to raise dairy price supports and then agreed on an overall compromise farm bill that represents a sweeping victory for President Eisenhower.

The compromise now goes to the House and Senate for final approval. Both chambers were expected to adopt the compromise measure which was hammered out after four days of closed-door conference committee sessions.

Chairman Clifford R. Hope (R-Kan.) of the House Agriculture committee plans to call the bill up for action in the House Tuesday. Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt.) plans to ask for a Senate vote immediately after the House acts.

The last major roadblock to final conference agreement crumbled when House members agreed to drop their insistence that government props on butter, cheese and non-fat milk solids be raised Sept. 1 to 80 per cent of the "fair earning power" parity level. Agriculture Secretary Benson last April lowered dairy supports from 90 per cent of parity to the current level of 75. The Senate had voted to make no change in this level.

82½-90 Support Compromise

The compromise provides: 1. Flexible supports ranging from 82½ to 90 per cent of the "fair earning power" parity level beginning next year on cotton, wheat, corn, rice and peanuts. The President had asked for a 75-90 per cent scale so lower supports could be coupled with production controls to cut the government's 6¼-billion-dollar mountain of surplus farm products, but he accepted the 82½ to 90 figure and this represented a victory for him over advocates of rigid 90 per cent supports.

2. A 2½-billion-dollar "set aside" of surplus crops. The "set aside" will be ignored in calculating support levels under the flexible system, cushioning prospective cuts in supports.

3. A new incentive support program for wool producers under which they will get direct subsidy

W. S. Tanner of Near Stonefort Dies

William S. Tanner, 65, died at 11:30 p. m. Sunday at the Herrin hospital. His funeral will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Church of God, North Main street in Carrier Mills, with the pastor, Rev. Carl Haney, officiating. Burial will be in Providence cemetery, west of Carrier Mills.

Mr. Tanner's body will be taken from the Thornton funeral home late today to the residence in Newcastle community near Stonefort.

He is survived by his wife, Planché; his children, Mrs. Carl Murphy, Carrier Mills, Mrs. John Black, Mt. Vernon, Mrs. Claude New, Harrisburg, and a daughter, Mabel, at home; a granddaughter, Betty Martin, whom they raised; six grandchildren, one great-grandson; two brothers, Harvey Tanner, Stonefort, Star Route, and Louis Tanner, Benton Harbor, Mich.; and one sister, Mrs. Ora Kerrigan, Chicago.

J. H. Anderson, Former Mail Carrier, Dies

James H. Anderson, 69, former mail carrier in the business district of Harrisburg, died suddenly Saturday at 2 p. m. in a doctor's office in Mt. Vernon, Ind.

Mr. Anderson's recent home was in Austin, Tex., where he and Mrs. Anderson had lived for the past four years. They returned annually for a vacation and had been home a week when his death occurred.

He is survived by his wife, Ora Kershaw Anderson, sister of H. C. Kershaw in Harrisburg; one son, Wendell, in California, and one grandson.

The funeral will be Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Carmi First Baptist church. Rev. John Phillips, pastor, will officiate, and burial will be in the Big Prairie cemetery east of Carmi.

The body will lie in state at the Walker funeral home in Carmi until the funeral hour.

Herman Ledbetter, Cave-in-Rock Policeman, Dies

Herman Ledbetter, 48, a member of the city police force in Cave-in-Rock, died Sunday at 7 a. m. in the Hardin County General hospital at Rosiclare.

The body will remain at the Rose funeral home in Cave-in-Rock until the funeral which will be Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Elizabethtown Methodist church. Rev. J. A. Hard will officiate, and burial will be in the Odd Fellows cemetery at Elizabethtown.

Eisenhower Signs Tax Reform Bill; Says It Will Benefit All Americans

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower signed today a $1,363,000,000 tax-saving revision measure which he described as a good law that would "benefit all Americans."

The President said the new law is part of a comprehensive tax program which since Jan. 1 has provided tax cuts totaling $7,400,000,000—"the largest dollar tax cut in any year in the nation's history."

Mr. Eisenhower signed the law in the presence of the congressional leaders who pushed it through. They included Rep. Daniel A. Reed (R-N.Y.), chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, and Sen. Eugene D. Millikin (R-Colo.), chairman of the Senate Finance Committee.

The new tax law is the first comprehensive re-writing of federal tax laws in more than 50 years. In addition to giving tax relief to corporations and individuals, it gives individuals an extra month to file returns.

Mr. Eisenhower flipped through the 929 pages of the bill and remarked with a laugh, "Boy, there is a lot of work in there for the lawyers."

Recites Benefits

The President, in a formal statement about the bill, recited many of the provisions which he said would benefit millions of taxpayers. He mentioned more liberal allowances for medical expenses, special deductions for working widows and widowers with small children, and the special consideration given persons who live on retirement income.

"In addition, to removing inequities in our tax system, this law will help our economy expand and thus add materially to the strength of our nation," he said. "It will help our people produce better goods at cheaper prices—and it will help to create more jobs."

"I can congratulate the Congress and its leaders for having reached its monumental tax revision. Its passage is a tribute to a Congress which in this session has made so many major contributions to the prosperity and security of the people of our country."

Most of the act's provisions, particularly those affecting individual taxpayers, are effective as of last Jan. 1.

Individual taxpayers will have until April 15 instead of March 15 to hand in their returns.

Some one million taxpayers who have been obliged to file estimates on the amount of taxes they owed by the new law, will be relieved of this requirement.

Democrats Critical

It provides that a single person will not have to file tax estimates if his income is covered by withholding and is not more than $5,000 a year. Married couples are excepted if their joint income does not exceed $10,000 and if most or all of it is covered by withholding.

Corporations will benefit from the new law through more liberal depreciation allowances and through hundreds of changes in the methods required for computing and filing tax returns. On the other hand, corporations will continue to pay a maximum income tax rate of 52 per cent until next April 1. Their tax rate had dropped to 47 per cent under provisions of the old law.

Many Democrats were particularly critical of the provisions under which individuals with dividend income will get a tax break. Some Democrats called this a windfall for the rich, but Republicans defended the plan on the grounds it would stimulate investment.

Under this provision, the first $50 of dividend income will be excluded from individual income taxes; the taxpayer then can subtract four per cent of the remainder of dividend income and pay no tax on that.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House today overwhelmingly approved a bill which would strip the Communist Party of all its rights and privileges.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican congressional leaders announced after a meeting with President Eisenhower today that they will try to wind up the legislative work of the 83rd Congress by Friday. They conceded Congress might have to work a few days longer than that.

Speaker Joseph W. Martin Jr. (Mass.) and Chairman Homer Ferguson (R-Mich.) of the Senate Republican Policy Committee discussed the highly tentative adjournment plans after the weekly White House legislative conference.

Both said they hoped for a clean-up of legislative business by the end of this week. But in almost the same breath, they expressed doubt that every loose end can be tied up before some time next week.

Senate Plans to Return

The House will quit for the year when the legislative docket is cleared up. The Senate plans to recess and return later to act on a report by a special committee studying censure charges against Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

One potential roadblock to adjournment apparently was removed when agreement was reached at the White House meeting on compromise legislation to strip the Communist Party of its legal standing without declaring membership in the party a crime.

Ferguson said that he also expects a House-Senate conference committee to agree later today on a atomic energy bill that will be satisfactory to Democratic opponents.

Expected to Increase Debt Limit
Martin said that the House will pass, probably today, a Senate-approved six-billion-dollar increase in the debt limit.

At the same time, the Senate was expected to act on three of the administration's anti-subversive bills. The measures would revoke the citizenship of convicted Communists, bar subversives from vital industries and stiffen penalties against peacetime spying and sabotage.

The Senate GOP Policy Committee also planned to meet this afternoon, possibly to add new items to the Senate's last-minute program.

Pending these leadership sessions, this was the layout of unfinished "must" legislation:

Farm Price Supports: A deadlocked House-Senate conference

Expect Report Oct. 1 On Censure Of Sen. McCarthy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Arthur V. Watkins (R-Utah) said today he is "reasonably sure" his special Senate committee pondering censure charges against Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy can submit its report by Oct. 1.

But two GOP Senate leaders immediately voiced concern over the lateness of this target date, hardly a month before the November election.

Sen. Homer E. Ferguson (R-Mich.), chairman of the Senate Republican Policy committee, said he had told Watkins that Oct. 1 was "fairly late" to expect senators to return to the capital, because of campaign commitments.

Knowland Backs Ferguson

And Senate GOP leader William F. Knowland said it would be harder to get the Senate to return in October than at an earlier date.

Watkins' six-man Senate "jury" is scheduled to begin public hearings Aug. 30 on moves to reprimand McCarthy. The Senate will recess when it cleans up its legislative business, probably by the end of this week, until the special committee is ready to file its report.

The Senate will then return to the capital to decide whether to condemn the controversial Wisconsin Republican for conduct unbecoming a senator.

Accusers May Testify

Meanwhile, a member of the committee who asked not to be identified said the three senators who filed formal charges against McCarthy—Sens. Ralph E. Flanders (R-Vt.), J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) and Wayne Morse (Ind.-Ore.)—would be expected to testify under oath during the hearings.

Watkins had said previously that he did not think McCarthy's accusers would be expected to testify unless they had personal knowledge of the incidents on which they based their charges.

McCarthy said Sunday he wanted Flanders to "raise his right hand and swear to tell the truth" at the hearings. He said it would show "complete lack of courage" for Flanders "not to stand up and say under oath what he told the Senate."

Death Takes Mrs. F. F. Cape, 88; Rites Wednesday

Mrs. F. F. Cape, 88-year-old mother of six children well-known in Harrisburg and vicinity, died at 2 a. m. today at Lightner hospital.

Mrs. Cape was taken to the hospital yesterday morning after suffering a stroke at 7 a. m. Wednesday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Aud Turner. On July 29 she had sustained a broken arm in a fall.

The body was moved to the Harrisburg funeral home and late today was taken to the residence of her son, Sam Cape, at 212 North Webster street.

The funeral service will be held at 4 p. m. Wednesday at the Cape home, the service to be conducted by the Rev. Robert W. Tabb, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, Eldorado, of which Mrs. Cape was a charter member. Interment will be in Sunset Hill cemetery, where her husband is buried.

In addition to her son, Sam Cape, and her daughter, Mrs. Turner, she leaves the following children: Mrs. Paul Halbersleben, with whom she had made her home, of Harrisburg; Mrs. J. P. Anderson of Equality, Mo.; and Mrs. John M. Karns of East St. Louis. She also leaves a sister, Mrs. John Drew of Crystal City, Mo., five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Cape was born at Potosi, Mo., and spent her early life in Missouri. She and Mr. Cape were married at Des Arc, Mo., and they moved to Eldorado in 1908, living there until Mr. Cape's death in 1928. Then she made her home with Mrs. Halbersleben.

James R. Coy, 50, Dies; Funeral Wednesday 2 p. m.

James R. Coy, 50, husband of Mrs. Emma Francis Coy, who moved to Harrisburg in May from Flint, Mich., died today at 10:50 a. m. in the Lightner hospital. He had been in failing health for over a year.

Mr. Coy was born in Dexter, Mo., on October 11, 1903, and lived in Flint, Mich., where he was employed at the Chevrolet plant for 36 years.

He and Mrs. Coy, who was a nurse at the Lightner hospital for seven years, were married Oct. 23, 1948.

Surviving are his wife; a step-daughter, Mrs. Wayne Reed, Harrisburg; a brother, Edward C. Coy, Houston, Tex.; two sisters, Mrs. Millard Murphy, Tucumcari, N. M., and Mrs. Gilbert E. Wilson, Galesburg; two nieces and nephews. All of his family was here at the time of his death.

The funeral will be Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Gaskins funeral home where the body will lie in state. Rev. George Dagley, pastor of the Berean Baptist church in Flint, Mich., where Mr. Coy was a member, will officiate, assisted by Rev. J. D. McCarty, pastor of the McKinley Avenue Baptist church.

McCarthy Investigators

Editorial — BY BRUCE BLOSSAT
Finding six senators out of 96 who would serve on the special committee to investigate Senator McCarthy's actions was not an easy task. The selections finally made are of revealing interest.

The Republicans chosen are Senators Watkins of Utah, Case of South Dakota and Carlson of Kansas. The Democrats are Senators Edwin Johnson of Colorado, Stennis of Mississippi and Ervin of North Carolina.

The argument is advanced that they were picked chiefly because they had not taken strong public positions on McCarthy, and presumably were qualified to sit in judgment on his conduct. This may be so, but the fact is there are many senators who have avoided a public stance on the controversial Wisconsin senator.

Most senators, it is quite clear, wanted no part of this committee.
Either they face re-election contests this year, or they come from states whose political complexion is so mixed that they deem it uncertain to be involved in this ticklish matter.

The outstanding thing about the six senators named to serve is that they are in politically safe positions. Let's look at them.

Watkins does not face the voters again until 1958, and of late Utah has been pretty consistently Republican. Case and Carlson, of South Dakota and Kansas, respectively, represent states which generally run 60 to 65 per cent Republican.

On the Democratic side, Johnson of Colorado is retiring from the Senate at the end of his term this year. Stennis is from politically safe Mississippi, and anyway does not come up again until 1958.

Ervin is from another safe southern state, North Carolina, and besides is merely an appointed interim successor to the late Senator Hoyer.

These are the realities which underlie the selections. That the men were picked in this manner does not mean that the inquiry will suffer. There is considerable ability and experience among this group, and the public must now hope that it is applied with full vigor to the job at hand.

The Senate launched this investigation in the shadow of a possible vote of censure against McCarthy. The action is almost without precedent in Senate history. In fairness to the public, it ought to lead to decisive findings.

Yet prospects for that are not too strong at best. In setting up a report by the end of the current session. This was an effort to prevent the matter being brushed into the background until elections are past. But it does not give the committee much time for study.

What it means is that the group probably will devote itself largely to trying to evaluate already existing testimony and evidence gathered by earlier committees.
But even that would be a service, and we urge that these six men now proceed to discharge their brief duty conscientiously.

lantic Ocean is the 4150 miles between Florida and the Strait of Gibraltar.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Mc-Carthy's Teasing Leaves Tyd-ings Cold.

WASHINGTON. — Years ago
when demagogues were demagogues, it wasn't safe to speak to anyone around the Senate. In fact, Sen. Boies Penrose, the famed boss of Pennsylvania, once had an elevator boy fired for saying good morning.

Nowadays, however, most senators speak. Some speak for fear they'll offend a constituent, some because they are just naturally friendly; and one or two because they like to bedevil others.

Which category the following falls into we will let the reader judge for himself. But Senator Cooper of Kentucky, one of the few Republicans who has announced he would vote to censure McCarthy, was waiting for a Senate elevator, when ex-Senator Millard Tydings of Maryland, who was defeating McCarthy, approached him. They spoke pleasantly and cordially.

Then, out of nowhere, McCarthy himself joined them, accompanied by his assistant, ex-FBI investigator Frank Carr. In Mc-Carthy's hand was a wooden map pointer such as is used by geography teachers to illustrate a map.
As McCarthy approached the elevator he reached out with the pointer and jokingly tapped Cooper on the shoulder.

"Well, John," he said, just as if Cooper were his most intimate friend. "How's the campaign going?"

Cooper, who saw a grain of humor in the situation, managed to smile as he replied, "Oh, not too bad, Joe."

McCarthy tapped Cooper a couple more times with his wand, but, finding bear-baiting such a friendly bear as Cooper not much fun, he turned to Tydings, whose photo
he had once faked in a friendly pose with Earl Browder, thereby causing Tydings' defeat.

Chuckling Joe poked the ex-Senator from Maryland in the ribs with the wooden wand and asked how he was.

"I don't want any part of you,"

Rider Killed in Motorcycle Pileup

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (AP)—Archie Wymer, 28, Granite City, Ill., was killed Sunday when three motorcycles piled up during a race at the Vigo County Fair, injuring two other drivers.

George Malek, 26, Chicago, was in critical condition with a possible skull fracture. Frank Gayaski, 24, Bargerton, Ohio, was less seriously hurt.

The accident came on a curve during the preliminary to the Indiana championship race.

LOSE UGLY FAT TODAY AND TAKE INCHES OFF OF HIPS AND WAISTLINE WITH HUNGER TABLETS

Newest of formulas recently brought to light by medical science is HUNGER TABLETS a preparation to take fat off hips and waistline and will not affect the heart.
For many who have tried "reducing treatments" and who have lost faith in them because of exaggerated claims and ineffectual results. HUNGER TABLETS bring new hope.
Simply take 2 tablets before each meal and see if your clothes don't fit and look more attractive, especially around fat spots such as hips, waist, abdomen, etc. No strict diet is required. Insist on HUNGER TABLETS at your druggist.
A 16 day supply for less than 19c per day. Guaranteed.

replied Tydings, with as much dignity as a man can muster when his ribs are poked.

Whereupon McCarthy, who claims to have studied his fighting techniques under Indian Charlie, went into gales of laughter. Poking Tydings again, he announced:
"Do you know my assistant, Mr.
Carr?"

Carr seemed hurt to observe anyone show a lack of respect for his boss, but this only seemed to make Joe laugh all the louder.

As the group got on the elevator, Joe continued his taunting. "It sure is good to see you again, Millard," he said, this time tapping his political foe on the shoulder instead of the ribs.

When the elevator door opened and the parting of the ways came, Joe wished his critics a cheery good-bye, once again waving his wand.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

During the Senate debate on cen-suring McCarthy, Indiana's Senator Homer Capehart got so excited defending McCarthy that he looked as if he were playing baseball. Lifting one leg in the air as if he were pitching baseball, he banged his fist on the desk. Out in the Senate cloakroom Senator Alex Wiley of Wisconsin commented:
"There go the Indiana bellows again!" Just as Capehart hit his climax, South Carolina's Senator Burnie Maybank let out a wild yell that sounded like "bogo." Actually, it was May-bank's Charleston, S. C., dialect calling for a vote.

McKinley T. E. L. Class Honors Two with Dinner

Thursday, August 12, was the birthday of Mrs. Frank Bond, a member of the T. E. L. Sunday school class of the McKinley Avenue Baptist church, and in her honor a potluck dinner was given by the class. Another special guest was Mrs. Kuma Oshel, former member who is now employed at the Masonic home at Sullivan and is visiting in Harrisburg.

Mrs. Leonard Jackson entertained the group at her home, 617 North Jackson street.

Mrs. Levi Chitty, teacher, offered thanks at the noon-day meal, after which the regular monthly meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Noah Raley. During the meeting a committee was named to appoint new officers for the coming church year.

Mrs. Ben Gardner gave the devotion and prayers were led by Mrs. Mollie Irvin and Mrs. Bond.

Present besides the above mentioned were Mesdames Mermen Thomas, John Upchurch, B. H. Smith, Annie Cowser, Bob Pavesi, Murtha Asbridge, Rufus Wells, William Jennings, Otis Reynolds, Fred Fulkerson, James Raley, R. O. Cletcher, Jesse Cannon and Emery Randolph and Miss Christina Smith.

Buena Vista Home Bureau Has Fish Fry at Cave-in-Rock

Cave-in-Rock was the scene for a fish fry held recently by the Buena Vista Home Bureau unit.

The ladies enjoyed the day visiting with one another and the children enjoyed the playground equipment and touring the cave.

The fish fry was also held in the honor of Mrs. Stella Bond who is moving to another place. She was presented a lovely lamp by the members of the unit.

Those attending were Mildred Smith, Lois Buchanan, Mary Holmerson, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McConnell, Ethel Blue, Ella Stump, Julia Mae Dunn and the following children: Dorothy, Kenneth and Alice Faye Smith, Charles Buchanan, Jerry Ray Parker, Freddie Denny, Kathy Nell McConnell, Michael Blue, Gene Paul Hollerson and Larry Morse.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mary Hollerson.

Dorrisville Baptist Ladies' Bible Class has Potluck

The members of the Ladies' Bible class of the Dorrisville Baptist church and their families met in the church basement Thursday evening instead of Karel park as had been planned.

Following the delicious potluck supper a social hour was enjoyed during which time mystery pal gifts were exchanged.

Attending were Rev. and Mrs. Bill Fuson, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Dills, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hudnell, Mrs. George Holland, Mrs. Clarence Dixon, Mrs. Charles McDowell, Mrs. Rose Stricklin, Mrs. Thelma Dunning, Mrs. Lon Vaughn, Mrs. Jimmy Stricklin, Mrs. Jimmy Procter, Miss Patsy Dunning, Miss Betty Procter, and Mrs. Jane Ellen Bussard and sons, David and John, from Pontiac, Mich., who were guests of the Roy Hudnells.

Myrons Named Outlet for Nationwide Distribution of Original Fashions

An arrangement whereby a Harrisburg ladies' ready-to-wear store becomes one of the principal components of a nation-wide distribution of women's original fashions has been revealed with the current edition of "Glamour", young women's fashion magazine.

Myrons of Harrisburg will be the outlet for southern Illinois and parts of Missouri, handling the garments at retail in Harrisburg, Marion, Vienna, and Carmi, and through mail orders referred from national headquarters of the new organization.

Under the arrangement, Lasersohn-Doneger, Inc., of New York will represent manufacturers of such items as Winco Originals, Natlynn, Mary Taylor, Fairfield, Jerrell Juniors, Natalie Green, and others to be announced.

Jack Lasersohn, formerly of Harrisburg, and brother of Eli Lasersohn, proprietor of Myrons, is a partner in Lasersohn-Doneger, and has made great progress during the past 10 years in the fashion field.

This firm, operating under its own trade name of Ladene, will help design and distribute the fashions over the United States, and selected Myrons as an outlet, not only for Harrisburg, but as a clearing point for mail orders and inquiries received from this area.

Royal Daughters Class Meets at Church

The Royal Daughters of Dorrisville Social Brethren church met in the lower rooms of the church for the class program.

The president was absent and Rose Morse read Psalms 61, after which the song, "What a Friend," was sung. Prayer was by Mary Barger and roll call was answered by scripture verse. A short business session was held and the class was dismissed by Pearl Aldridge.

Entertainment was by Carrie Randolph who conducted amusing contests with Nancy Blue and Gertrude Cook receiving prizes.

Refreshments were served to the following not previously mentioned: Mrs. Bob Wilson, Mrs. Oma Johnson, Mrs. Marie Sullivan, Mrs. Alta Dixon, Mrs. Golda Dunn, Mrs. Nellie Wright, Mrs. Frankie Moore, Louise Butler, Doris Sullivan and a visitor, Lois Wright.

J. P. Hilliards Host To Mr. and Mrs. Club

The Mr. and Mrs. Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hilliard Tuesday evening, August 10.

Help Promote Democracy, Teachers Asked

CHICAGO (AP) — President Eisenhower today sent his "warm greetings" to the delegates attending the 37th annual opening sessions of the convention of the American Federation of Teachers (AFL).

The President said "no task in all America can be greater importance" than the promotion of "democracy in education and education for democracy," the slogan of the American Federation of Teachers.

Carl J. Megel, federation president, indicated that measures to combat the twin shortages of classrooms and teachers would be an important part of the agenda presented to nearly 1,000 delegates from 42 states, the Canal Zone, and Alaska.

In his keynote address, prepared for the session, Megel urged the country's public school teachers to lead in "stamping out fears that beset the American people."

It is the "teacher's responsibility," he said, to "teach a return to the democracy that shuns both communism and McCarthyism."

"The public is distracted from education's needs," Megel said, by "an era of frenzy and fear."

Among the problems facing public schools, the federation president said, are shortages of 300,000 qualified teachers and 500,000 classrooms.

He called for higher pay and more security as methods of keeping teachers in the profession and of attracting new recruits with proper training.

Hall, Mitchell Exchange Blasts At ABA Meeting

CHICAGO (AP) — The national chairmen of the Democratic and Republican parties gave indications of how the fall congressional campaigns will be fought as they exchanged political charges before the opening of the American Bar Assn. convention today.

Leonard W. Hall of the Republicans and Stephen A. Mitchell of the Democrats gave directly opposite versions of the Eisenhower administration's record.

Hall charged the Democrats a "party caught flat footed by good times" and said the GOP has already knocked their basic campaign "issues" into "a cocked hat."

Mitchell attacked the Republicans and Mr. Eisenhower on charges of favoring big business, retreating into "sugar-coat isolationism," and political disunity and opportunism.

The political leaders spoke before the ABA's 77th annual convention, described as the biggest in its history. Other speakers today included Alexander F. Jones, executive editor of the Syracuse, N. Y., Herald-Journal, and ABA President William J. Jameson.

A top issue before the 5,000 delegates was a resolution dealing with the teaching of how communism works in American schools.

The ABA board of governors Sunday night watered down a resolution on the issue drawn up by the committee on American citizenship.

Navy Board Asks Campaign to Bolster Reserve Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — A special Navy board proposed today that President Eisenhower launch a nationwide campaign to bolster the Naval Reserve program but insisted reserve service remain voluntary.

The Naval Reserve evaluation board, headed by Vice Adm. Felix Johnson (ret.), recommended that Mr. Eisenhower lead a drive to stimulate recruiting and public support for the Navy Reserve forces.

But it flatly opposed putting Navy Reserve service on a compulsory basis. It said a switch from the present voluntary system would "inevitably destroy its fundamental strength."

Compulsory service, after active duty hitches, has been proposed by the Defense Department for all the military forces and approved in principle by the National Security Council. The administration is expected to ask for congressional approval next year.

Mrs. Opal Santy Hostess To Gaiety Club at Cafe

Mrs. Opal Santy was hostess to the Gaiety club Wednesday evening at Santy's cafe. When the guests arrived Mrs. Santy served a delicious meal consisting of hamburgers, french fries, combination salad, ice cream and Cokes.

Mrs. Santy received a lovely gift from her gaiety pal for her birthday and anniversary.

Mrs. Pauline Beasley was the winner of the towels.

During the recreational period game prizes were awarded to Pauline Beasley, Elsie Lea Ammon, Alma Jean Van Hoy, Mary Louise Martin and Elsie King was the winner of the grand prize.

Those present to enjoy the evening were Mrs. Pearl Field, Mrs. Aline Hart, Mrs. Muriel Thomas, Mrs. Angelina Prather, a guest of Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Leanna Austin, Mrs. Alma Jean Van Hoy, Mrs. Elsie King, Mrs. Pauline Beasley and the hostess, Mrs. Santy.

The next meeting will be August 26 at the home of Mrs. Elsie King.

Miss Carrie Wasson Hostess To Rebekah Past Noble Grands Club

Recently the members of the Past Noble Grands club of Comfort Rebekah lodge, No. 48, journeyed to Fern Hill, the country home of Miss Carrie B. Wasson, where a delicious picnic supper was served on the lawn.

The menu consisted of baked beans and all the trimmings, homemade ice cream and cake for dessert, iced tea and Kool-Aid. Grace was offered by Mrs. Dollie Davis.

Following the bountiful potluck and after everyone had admired the scenery, beautiful rocks and antiques, the group went indoors where the meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Addie Ramsey.

Following the theme song the devotion was given by Miss Wasson who read from first Samuel, beginning with the 21st verse, which was very inspirational. Prayer was by Mrs. Ellen Kingery. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and roll call was answered with a scripture verse beginning with the letter "U".

Following the business the group was dismissed in prayer by Mrs. Martha Hood.

Grace Henson and Geneva Morris had charge of the entertainment which consisted of the singing of old songs while Miss Wasson played an old fashioned parlor organ.

At a late hour each expressed her thanks to Miss Wasson for a lovely evening.

The following were present: Mesdames Martha Hood, Jane Pankey, Gladys Pankey, Geneva Morris, Ella Chase, Addie Miller, Thelma O'Neal, Dollie Davis, Clark Campbell, Ellen Kingery, Addie Ramsey, Nellie Cast, Grace Henson, Helen Gibson, and three visitors: Mrs. Dallas, Blanche Whitney and Johnnie Pankey.

The next meeting will be Friday, September 3, at 7 p. m. with Mrs. Gladys Pankey.

First Baptist Amoma Class Holds Regular Meeting

The members of the Amoma Sunday school class of the First Baptist church met in the basement of the church recently for the regular social and business session.

The meeting was called to order by the class president, Mrs. Ella Chase. After singing the theme song, "Our Best," the devotion, taken from St. Luke the 11th chapter, was given by Mrs. Addie Hancock. Mrs. Nola Monroe led in prayer.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Roll call was answered with a scripture verse. The committee gave a good report on the selection of officers to be elected at the September meeting and of buying a lovely plate glass for a table top in the main auditorium of the church.

At the close of the meeting the group was dismissed in prayer by Mrs. Jane Pankey. Mrs. Blanche Whitney asked the following to the Gem cafe where ice cream and Cokes were served: Mrs. Carrye Hart, Mrs. Nola Monroe, Mrs. Ethel Rann, Mrs. Jane Pankey, Mrs. Goldene Abney, Mrs. Addie Hancock and Mrs. Ella Chase.

The next meeting will be a potluck supper on Thursday evening, Sept. 2, the place to be announced later. All members are urged to be present for the election of officers.

Conferees Agree On Farm Measure

payments from the government.

4. New legislative language confirming Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson's authority to control land forced out of major crop production by federal controls.

Throw Out Dairy Plan

The conference committee also threw out a House-approved clause that would have permitted Benson to support dairy products by direct subsidy payments to farmers or processors.

In return, Senate conferees who objected to increasing dairy supports agreed to give Benson a completely free hand in disposing of the one-billion-pound dairy surplus owned by the government. This authority, effective until Mar. 31, 1956, would allow Benson to use "any method determined necessary," presumably including sales of surplus butter to consumers at cut prices.

The compromise also gives Benson power to support dairy products by purchasing fluid milk in addition to such manufactured products as butter, cheese and non-fat milk solids. The bill would direct him to buy 50 million dollars worth of fluid milk annually for the next two years for donation to school lunchrooms.

AROUND SPRINGFIELD

Newsman Will Closely Watch Eisenhower
Reaction to Meek on Visit to State Fair

By DON CHAMBERLAIN

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (Special)—A blueprint of President Eisenhower's visit to the Illinois State Fair here on Republican Day this Thursday shows that he will spend an important 20-minute visit with certain exhibits, those dealing with livestock and youth participants. He will be accompanied by Gov. and Mrs. William G. Stratton. It will afford photographers, radio and television a field day.

Developments will be watched closely by newsmen in case Joseph Meek, Republican candidate for U. S. senator, is in the group. Another special blessing on Meek's candidacy will be emphasized. Newsmen will be hovering close by to watch any expression or comment by the President. The brief fairgrounds tour is said to have been listed by Eisenhower as a "must."

Another item on the blue print is the Executive Mansion Luncheon the Governor and Mrs. Stratton will give the President and his staff. As this is written it is planned to also have state officers but not their wives. It's possible that because State School Superintendent Vernon L. Nickell is a candidate for re-election, state candidates Meek and Warren Wright, candidate for state treasurer, may be included.

In this case there will be some interest in what the President may have to say to Meek and vice versa. One newsmen's request that the press be allowed to observe the luncheon in case Meek is a guest was turned down. If it turns out Meek does attend the luncheon, he is likely to be besieged later by reporters for information as to any conversation he may have with the President.

A new fair race track gimmick is a hydraulic lift for use of horse race jockeys, starters and other officials. It was especially made for the fair here by a Springfield firm. Made of steel it rises five feet and extends out over the track three feet. It provides excellent views up and down the track. If successful here it may be used at other tracks.

State Safety Director Joseph D. Bibb, Chicago, has a four-point program to reduce the death toll on state highways. One would establish a speed limit of 65 miles an hour in daytime and 55 at night for passenger cars. The state already has speed limits for trucks and buses. Other points would expand use of radar and use of state cops in civvies and unmarked cars.

Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter estimates that action by his office in enforcing the state securities law, strengthened at Carpenter's request by the 68th General Assembly, has prevented the floating of $19 million worth of questionable stock in Illinois. Still pending are cases which involve stock valued at $14 million.

The new law which became effective on January 1, 1954, authorized the Secretary to ban, without court action, the sale of securities which appeared to be fraudulent, inequitable or would tend to work a fraud. The secretary took action against 129 companies and in only 36 cases involving stocks with $5 million was he unsuccessful.

A 29-mile extension of Route 148 from a point at the Ordill Plant near Herrin to Dongola is under consideration by Governor Stratton. It would cost in excess of $4,000,000. In talking to a delegation from Union and Williamson counties last week he indicated he might make the proposal a four-year project, have it built in four sections.

A delegation spokesman which included legislative representatives from the 50th senatorial district in which Williamson and Union counties are located, said the extension would open up a vast new trade area. Stratton said he would make a decision as soon as he had an opportunity to study a report on a traffic survey and the proposal itself.

State Sen. Homer Butler, Marion, headed the delegation. Others were State Reps. Harry W. McIntock, West Frankfort, and John

Committee still must iron out differences on dairy props. The House wants a boost to 80 per cent of parity. The Senate wants them kept at 75 per cent.

Social Security: A House-Senate Conference Committee worked on differences largely involving extension of old age insurance coverage of the bill to broaden the Social Security program and increase benefit payments.

Appropriations: Conference committees must iron out differences in the foreign aid money bill and a big supplemental appropriation bill containing funds for scores of agencies.

Atomic Energy: A Conference Committee must try again to resolve differences between the House and Senate over proposed laws to govern future development of atomic power, particularly the section dealing with patents for atomic discoveries. The Senate already has bounced this bill back to conference once.

Debt Limit: The House must decide whether to accept the Senate-passed temporary six-billion-dollar increase or ask for a conference committee to compromise differences over raising the 275-billion-dollar ceiling on the national debt. Other legislation which Congress expects to handle this week involves public works projects, amendments to the renegotiation law, unemployment insurance, the borrowing authority of the Commodity Credit Corp., and possibly federal pay increases.

Run by Fire Department

A hot plate that had been left connected was damaged and the Clarence Moreland residence at 724 West Lincoln avenue was filled with smoke early Saturday afternoon. Fire Chief Ray Johnson reported today. The fire truck made a run to the scene.

Kiwanis League All-Stars Play Tie

The Stars and Stripes, All-Star Kiwanis league teams, played a 13-13 tie in a preliminary game to the Nash-Mt. Carmel game Sunday at the town park diamond.

It was a free scoring game in which the Stars came from behind to tie the Stripes, 13-13, with eight runs in a big fourth inning, and with good relief pitching the game ended in the tie due to a time limit set on the game.

Batteries for the Stars: Biggs, Maszaros and Carnett, Profit; for the Stripes: Henshaw, Boyett and Hancock, Shelton.

Tuesday's Schedule
3 p. m.
Palace vs. Elks, Taylor field; James Bros. vs. NYC, town park.
5 p. m.
Deuces vs. Texaco, Taylor field; Excel vs. Shells, town park.

Nash Defeats Mt. Carmel, 11-7

The Nash nine picked up its 11th win of the season, and fourth in a row Sunday, defeating Mt. Carmel 11-7 in a game played on the town park diamond.

Roark was the winning hurler, although he had to be relieved in the ninth frame.

J. Nolen started for Nash, but ran into a streak of wildness in the fourth when he passed four batters and coupled with a hit batsman and a fielder's choice, three runs scored. In the fifth three errors, a base on balls and two hits allowed three more Mt. Carmel runs.

Roark came to the rescue and did a great job of getting out of trouble and stayed around from the 5th to the ninth, allowing only three hits and no runs.

Tate started for Mt. Carmel and allowed only three hits in the first six innings, but in the seventh Nash got to him for five hits and came up with six tallies. Brown relieved Tate and halted the rally, but in the eighth Nash started hitting and running again, scored five runs and tied the decision. In the eighth inning rally Sisk had a double, Bledig a triple and K. Nolen a home run.

Hitting honors were shared by K. Nolen with three for five, including a double and a homer; Bledig had a triple and double in four tries; Sisk connected with two for four and Fulkerson also had two for four. Others in the hit column were Kames, Shewmake, Harrison and Roark.

Brown, Stelzer and Price each had two hits for Mt. Carmel.

Nash will hold practice sessions this week at Miners Field on Wednesday and Friday, starting at 5 p. m.

THE SCOREBOARD

No Matter What Happens, Dodger Dynasty is Dimming

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK — (NEA) — While baseball writers were standing around in the Ebbets Field press room waiting for him to make a practically breath-taking announcement, one of them directed a question at Walter Francis O'Malley.

"Can he pitch?" he asked. "I wish he could," replied President O'Malley, and then he revealed that Red Patterson, formerly of the Yankees, had been named assistant to the general manager.

It was pointed out to O'Malley that the Brooklyn club had no general manager.

"We haven't any pitching, either," he countered.

With another front office man acquired, where the dire need is for pitching, someone remarked that Branch Rickey would not have permitted the Dodgers to be in their present fix.

No matter what happens, the Dodger dynasty is dimming.

When Sam Breadon and Rickey were winning pennants in clusters in St. Louis, the saying was that no one ever died on the Cardinals.

Mahtama Rickey got rid of fading athletes while they were still marketable.

From the looks of things, several performers are going to die on the Superbas. When another season rolls around, Preacher Roe will be 37, Jackie Robinson will be 36 and Pee Wee Reese and Billy Cox will be 35.

The records will show Roy Campanella to be 33, and on his way out, in which he had four boggles and one triple bogie, he thought alternately that he had it won, and that he had it lost.

Putt Decides Winner

But he earned the money with an eight-foot putt on the 18th and last green for a birdie three.

"When I hit that putt," he said, "I hit it so well, man, I was gone. I knew if I made that I'd at least tie, and I said to myself, 'Now don't hit it too easy. Get it up there!'"

It dropped, and the leader after 54 holes, Earl Stewart, Dallas, Tex., couldn't sink a 10 footer on the same hole. Thus Stewart finished deadlocked with Jackie Burke, Kiamasha Lake, N. Y., with 275, and each earned $7,500.

Top Money Winner

Toski's victory lifted him far ahead of the field in the race for top money winning honors in pro golf in 1954. Earlier he had been in third place, but the big payoff gave him $64,938.74 for this season, more now than the runner-up probably will total for the entire season.

Toski planned to go to South America and Australia before he begins the guaranteed tour of exhibitions, probably in November.

Patty Berg won her second straight title in the women's pro division with a total of 298 for $5,000, while Louise Suggs, Atlanta, Ga., was second with 301 for $1,500.

Frank Stranahan, Toledo, Ohio, posted a 284 for his fifth straight men's amateur crown, while Mickey Wright, La Jolla, Calif., won the women's amateur with a 309 count.

That line pretty well describes the plight of the Dodgers, come to think of it.

The Dodgers, almost unanimously picked to take it all and finally flail the Yankees in the World Series, rapidly are approaching the stage where they have to play longshots in a desperate attempt to get out of the hole.

Merchants Beat Marion, 13-3

Gene Trammel hurled a six-hit, 13-3, win for the Harrisburg Merchants Sunday afternoon at Marion in a game marked with numerous defensive plays and a display of clutch hitting by his teammates.

Although the locals collected on ten safeties, the hits came at the right times to account for the 13 runs. Bob Minton was the loser for Marion, giving up four walks while his teammates erred twice to aid the Merchant cause.

Jim Parton lashed Minton for four safeties which included a bases loaded triple in the final frame. He collected six runs-batted-in before the afternoon was over. Harold Guiley had a pair of hits in three attempts to take runners-up honors as Henderson and Emery picked up a pair for Marion.

Billy McNew got on the business end of a pair of double plays to take Trammel off the hook for defensive play honors. Don Price, a youngster from the Kiwanis league, turned in a steady game in center field and collected one of the Merchant hits.

Next Sunday the Paducah Giants will be back in town. The Merchants own a victory over the Giants which was iced in the 11th inning on Dick Romanosky's grand slam homer.

Lafayette, Ind., Nine Eliminates Belleville In Legion Tournament

ST. JOSEPH, Mich. (UP) — Cincinnati meets Lafayette, Ind., tonight in the feature game of the second round of the regional Junior American Legion baseball tournament here.

Cincinnati Bentley, three-time National Junior Legion champions, defeated Detroit Terndest, 4-3, in Sunday's top game. Lafayette scored an 8-2 victory over Belleville, Ill.

Thirteen major league scouts were in the stands for Sunday's game to watch some of the Midwest's outstanding young players perform. Winner of the tournament will go to Yakima, Wash., for the national tourney Sept. 15.

Sunday's losers — Detroit and Belleville — meet tonight and the loser will be eliminated from the tourney.

CHICAGO — Kansas City was scheduled as the host city for the 1955 basketball tournament today by the executive committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, with the finals scheduled for March 18 and 19.

Other tourney dates and sites approved were cross-country at Michigan State, Nov. 29; skiing at North Carolina, Nov. 29; swimming, March 4-5; basketball, March 24-25; fencing at Michigan State, March 25-26; and baseball at Omaha, Neb., June 10-14 or June 11-15.

Toski is Top Winner in Tam O'Shanter Meet

CHICAGO — Bob Toski, a golf gambler with every stroke, stood out today as the most logical successor to the former names in the game, with a $50,000 tourney victory racked up as his stepping stone.

Toski scrambled all the way to a final round par 72 in Tam O'Shanter's "world" tournament, but the 127-pound belter from Livingston, N. J., made that stand up for top prize, which also includes a contract for 100 exhibitions at $1,000 each, with a 14-under-par 72 hole total of 274.

Toski said he was thinking "of that $50,000" all the way around his course, and on his round, in which he had four bogies and one triple bogie, he thought alternately that he had it won, and that he had it lost.

Putt Decides Winner

But he earned the money with an eight-foot putt on the 18th and last green for a birdie three.

"When I hit that putt," he said, "I hit it so well, man, I was gone. I knew if I made that I'd at least tie, and I said to myself, 'Now don't hit it too easy. Get it up there!'"

It dropped, and the leader after 54 holes, Earl Stewart, Dallas, Tex., couldn't sink a 10 footer on the same hole. Thus Stewart finished deadlocked with Jackie Burke, Kiamasha Lake, N. Y., with 275, and each earned $7,500.

Top Money Winner

Toski's victory lifted him far ahead of the field in the race for top money winning honors in pro golf in 1954. Earlier he had been in third place, but the big payoff gave him $64,938.74 for this season, more now than the runner-up probably will total for the entire season.

Toski planned to go to South America and Australia before he begins the guaranteed tour of exhibitions, probably in November.

Patty Berg won her second straight title in the women's pro division with a total of 298 for $5,000, while Louise Suggs, Atlanta, Ga., was second with 301 for $1,500.

Frank Stranahan, Toledo, Ohio, posted a 284 for his fifth straight men's amateur crown, while Mickey Wright, La Jolla, Calif., won the women's amateur with a 309 count.

That line pretty well describes the plight of the Dodgers, come to think of it.

The Dodgers, almost unanimously picked to take it all and finally flail the Yankees in the World Series, rapidly are approaching the stage where they have to play longshots in a desperate attempt to get out of the hole.

Merchants Beat Marion, 13-3

Gene Trammel hurled a six-hit, 13-3, win for the Harrisburg Merchants Sunday afternoon at Marion in a game marked with numerous defensive plays and a display of clutch hitting by his teammates.

Although the locals collected on ten safeties, the hits came at the right times to account for the 13 runs. Bob Minton was the loser for Marion, giving up four walks while his teammates erred twice to aid the Merchant cause.

Jim Parton lashed Minton for four safeties which included a bases loaded triple in the final frame. He collected six runs-batted-in before the afternoon was over. Harold Guiley had a pair of hits in three attempts to take runners-up honors as Henderson and Emery picked up a pair for Marion.

Billy McNew got on the business end of a pair of double plays to take Trammel off the hook for defensive play honors. Don Price, a youngster from the Kiwanis league, turned in a steady game in center field and collected one of the Merchant hits.

Next Sunday the Paducah Giants will be back in town. The Merchants own a victory over the Giants which was iced in the 11th inning on Dick Romanosky's grand slam homer.

Lafayette, Ind., Nine Eliminates Belleville In Legion Tournament

ST. JOSEPH, Mich. (UP) — Cincinnati meets Lafayette, Ind., tonight in the feature game of the second round of the regional Junior American Legion baseball tournament here.

Cincinnati Bentley, three-time National Junior Legion champions, defeated Detroit Terndest, 4-3, in Sunday's top game. Lafayette scored an 8-2 victory over Belleville, Ill.

Thirteen major league scouts were in the stands for Sunday's game to watch some of the Midwest's outstanding young players perform. Winner of the tournament will go to Yakima, Wash., for the national tourney Sept. 15.

Sunday's losers — Detroit and Belleville — meet tonight and the loser will be eliminated from the tourney.

Braves Win Ninth Straight; Dodgers Trim Giants' Lead to Only One-Half Game

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

General Manager John Quinn, who's been ducking brickbats most of the year for trading Johnny Antonelli, was entitled to take a few bows today for his "bargain basement buys" of the two sluggers who are leading the Milwaukee Braves' "miracle drive" on the National league pennant.

For it's been Joe Adcock and Andy Pafko, a couple of castoffs, who have been swinging the big sticks as the Braves roared to 20 victories in 22 games since July 21. The Braves made it nine straight with a 2-1 triumph over the Chicago Cubs Sunday while the Brooklyn Dodgers routed the New York Giants, 9-4. As a result, the Giants' once-massive seven-game lead over the Dodgers was cut to a half game with the onrushing Braves only 3 1/2 from the lead.

Adcock, acquired from the Cincinnati Redlegs for infielder Rocky Bridges on Feb. 16, 1953, shows a .349 batting average in those 22 games to date. Pafko, obtained from the Brooklyn Dodgers for infielder Roy Hartsfield and $50,000 on Jan. 17, 1953, has been belting at a .387 clip.

Adcock collected two singles and a double while Pafko contributed a triple and a single to the Braves' eighth-inning attack Sunday which enabled Gene Conley to score his 12th victory with a seven-hit performance.

Mays Paces Ruth

Duke Snider and Gil Hodges hit home runs to lead the Dodgers to their third straight over the floundering Giants, who now have lost seven of their last eight games. Willie Mays hit his 37th homer for the Giants to remain even with Babe Ruth's record pace.

The Cleveland Indians, meanwhile, increased their American league lead to three games with a 5-2 and 3-1 sweep of the Baltimore Orioles while the New York Yankees scored a 14-9 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

Larry Doby hit his 27th homer with two aboard in the sixth inning to provide the Indians with their winning margin in the opener and Bobby Avila had a homer and a double in the nightcap. Art Houtteman gained his 12th win and Mike Garcia his 15th as the Indians swept their 10th doubleheader and ran their winning streak to six games.

The Yankees won their seventh straight game on the wings of an eight-run first inning explosion. Bob Grim received credit for his 16th win while Mickey Mantle homered for New York and Harry Agganis hit a grand slam for Boston.

Cards, Pirates Win

The St. Louis Cardinals outslugged the Cincinnati Redlegs, 14-12, and the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 9-6, in the other National league games. The second game between the Pirates and Phillies was suspended after eight innings with the score tied, 6-6.

The Cardinals unloaded a 14-hit attack that offset ninth-inning homers by Ted Kluszewski, Jim Green-grass and Gus Bell while Dick Littlefield won his eighth game behind the Pirates' 16th attack, including Frank Thomas' 17th homer.

The Detroit Tigers got four-hit pitching from Steve Gromek to beat the Chicago White Sox, 2-1, and Fred Hatfield drove in four runs in the nightcap to complete the sweep with an 8-7 victory. The losses left the White Sox 9 1/2 games out of first place.

Johnny Schmitz' seven-hit pitching gave the Washington Senators a 4-1 verdict over the Philadelphia A's in the other American league game. The win was Schmitz' seventh—matching his victory total for the last three years.

THE STORY: Texas cowboys tear apart the town of Sage City, following payday after driving a herd to Kansas. Fighting to make the wide-open trail town law abiding is Luke Miller, the editor of a newspaper, but Jacob Fugger, who owns most of the businesses in town, strives to keep the saloons and gambling dives going. Wes Tancered, the man who shot Sam Older, works for Miller under the name of John Bailey. A recent complication is the shooting by Manny Harpending, one of the Texas cowboys, of a local gambler. Manny must be arrested, says Fugger, but the marshal has resigned rather than tackle the job.

Harpending and his friends were now the rulers of Sage City. They yipped and whooped and fired their guns at random, crashing a store window here and there.

Then Harpending decided to pay a visit to Jacob Fugger. He assumed that he would find him in the latter's store and rode his horse up onto the sidewalk with the intention of riding right into the store. But the doorway was not high enough and he dismounted, leaving the horse in front of the door.

That was the moment Wes Tancered stepped out of the Bon Ton

Cafe, across the street from Fugger's Store. He saw Harpending, gun in hand, plunge into Fugger's place.

Tancered started swiftly across the street. One of Harpending's friends sent his horse forward to cut off Tancered.

"Where do you think you're going?" he demanded.

"Into the store, where else?"

The cowboy noted the lack of armament on Tancered. His code forbade him to shoot an unarmed man and while he hesitated as to how to stop Tancered, the latter went past him into the store.

Inside Fugger's Store, Harpending was advancing toward the rear. On the right, Laura Vesser watched his progress with trepidation. Toward other clerks, one a middle-aged woman, the other an elderly man, were backing away before Harpending.

"I want to see the old coot," Harpending was saying. "He told the marshal to arrest me and I wanna know why."

Bill Bleek came down the stairs from the perch in the rear of the store.

"Get out of here, Harpending, if you know what's good for you."

"Well, if it ain't Mr. Fugger's errand boy," sneered Harpending. "And without a gun as usual."

"I don't fight with guns," Bleek retorted, "but if you'll put down your own gun, I'll break every bone in your body."

Harpending raised his rifle, took a careless shot at Bill Bleek. The bullet missed by inches but stopped Bleek on the stairs.

Laura Vesser could not repress a little scream and thus called Harpending's attention to her.

"Hey, what's this? Purtiest girl I've seen in Kansas." He swerved and headed toward Laura Vesser. At that moment Tancered entered the store. Harpending did not see him. He continued toward Laura.

"I'm a ring-tailed civet cat," declared Harpending. "Here—gimme a kiss."

He had reached the counter and suddenly lunged across it. Laura dodged and started away behind the counter. Harpending wheeled to follow and walked into the swiftly advancing Tancered. Harpending yelped in surprise, tried to lever a fresh cartridge into the chamber of the rifle, but Tancered grabbed it savagely out of his hands and threw it to the floor. Harpending went for his revolver, but it never cleared the holster. Tancered's fist smashed into Harpending's face. He crossed with a savage blow into the midriff and as Harpending folded forward Tancered hit him the third and last time, on the jaw. Harpending collapsed.

Tancered stooped and grabbing Harpending by the belt yanked him up. Bleek came forward.

"If you ain't the hero!" he snarled.

Tancered shot him a look of complete contempt and propelled the half-conscious Harpending to the door. He whipped it open with his left hand, then braced up Harpending with both hands.

"Here's your friend," he said to the men outside the door.

He shoved Harpending violently forward. The Texas man caromed off one of the horses, hit the hitch-rail and fell on his face in the street.

The three friends of Harpending stared. Harpending was their leader. His downfall filled them with consternation. One of them half pulled a gun on Tancered, but lacking Harpending's lead he let the gun slide back.

Tancered did not even look back. He went stiffly down the sidewalk, past the hotel. Chuck Gorey, having peered out of the saloon, was coming cautiously out of the saloon. He stared at Tancered in amazement.

"Is that Harpending back there?" he asked.

Tancered nodded his head carelessly, went past Gorey.

Tancered continued on to the corner, turned and entered the print shop.

"What's all the shooting?" Luke Miller asked.

"Just the usual," Tancered replied. But it wasn't more than 10 minutes before Miller had the complete story from a witness. Miller wrote it all down and made certain to give the copy to Mose Hudkins to set up. In the meantime, Tancered was setting up the type for Miller's editorial.

The last copy of the Star was taken away from the press by Mrs. Miller shortly after four o'clock. Miller and Tancered read the story. "It was news, I guess, so it had to be printed," he said.

Judge is Chief Beneficiary in Woman's Estate

PINCKNEYVILLE, Ill. (AP) — A county judge, who said he had been a friend to a spinster for more than 20 years, today was the chief beneficiary of a will dividing the woman's $200,000 estate.

The will of Miss Ethel Stryker was filed in the court of Perry County Judge Judson E. Harris Friday. Miss Stryker died in Du Quoin July 2.

After it was disclosed that Harris was the recipient of all but $2,500 of her estate, Harris announced he would appoint a judge from another county to decide on the will's validity.

No will had been known to exist when Miss Stryker died, and Harris had already appointed a public administrator, who reported her estate included $200,000 in real estate and $7,000 in personal property.

Friday the attorney for the administrator presented a will allegedly written by Miss Stryker in longhand on a page of an old ledger book Dec. 26, 1950. It left a brother, sister and nephew $500 each, and $1,000 to the First Methodist Church.

The document left "all of my money and bonds at the time of my death in bequest to my friend and lawyer, Judson E. Harris of Du Quoin."

Harris as county judge Oct. 26, 1951, had named a conservator to handle the woman's estate. The petition naming the conservator declared Miss Stryker was "mentally ill," but Harris said Friday the conservator was appointed because of her poor physical health.

Harris said he had never actually been the woman's lawyer, but had been a friend and aided her in legal matters for more than 20 years.

Father Held on Charges of Beating Daughter

CHICAGO (AP) — A 56-year-old father of four children was held today on charges of beating his 15-year-old daughter with boards.

The daughter, Kaatrin Harmanutz, ran into the North Damen Ave. police station Saturday and told of the beating. She was taken to a hospital where she was said to be in "fair" condition with a possible skull fracture and various bruises and contusions.

Police said the barefoot girl told them she was washing clothes in the basement of her home when her father, Frank, instructed her to leave. She said her father beat her with boards when she said she wanted to finish the washing.

Police said the girl told them an older brother assisted in the beating when their father became tired. Her mother sat by and laughed, she said.

Police arrested the father. They said he admitted the beating. He said he used laths and claimed it was his right to punish his daughter when she didn't obey him, police said.

Broughton Man Dies

W. J. Kelley, 54, produce buyer at Broughton, died at 11 o'clock last night in the Ferrell hospital following an appendectomy.

The body will lie in state at the Turner funeral home in Broughton today after 4 p. m. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Three Divorces Granted

Circuit Judge C. Ross Reynolds of Vienna granted three divorces in court here Friday. They were: Truman Garrett from Carolouise Grett; Mary Louise Streich from Ernest Philip Streich; Thomas B. Tanner from Doris Bruce Tanner.

California Boy, 14, Wins National Soap Box Derby

AKRON, Ohio. (AP) — Richard D. Kemp, 14, Los Angeles, Calif., who plans to study engineering at Stanford University, won the national soap box derby championship and a $5,000 four-year college scholarship here Sunday.

Kemp won five heats in a row for the championship when he piloted his light-blue racer, sponsored by the Los Angeles Daily News, down the 975-foot Derby Downs hill. His winning time was 27.51 seconds.

Second place in the finals in which 150 boys from all over the nation competed went to Gary L. Miller, 15, Long Beach, Calif., sponsored by the Independent Press-Telegram. He won a $4,000 college scholarship.

Next in order were: third, for a $3,000 college scholarship, John P. Kirley, 15, Evansville, Ind., sponsored by the Evansville Press; fourth, for a $2,000 college scholarship, Edwin F. Gorka Jr., 13, Detroit, Mich., and fifth, Elliott Gorin, 14, San Diego, Calif., for a $1,000 college scholarship.
